

SCT BARGAINING MUST COMMENCE NOW!

Your responses to the recent TWU survey (which informs the national log of claims) tell us that SCT workers want a national agreement to cover all workers, and for negotiations to commence as soon as possible.

You told us that these claims are important to you:

- ▶ EA consolidation – one national agreement
- ▶ Industry rates
- ▶ Superannuation – pathway to 15%
- ▶ Power building clauses
- ▶ 30 June 2023 expiry
- ▶ No worse off clause
- ▶ Redundancy provisions to be improved
- ▶ Start/ finish times
- ▶ Consultation and rights at work
- ▶ Disputes clause to include status quo and include employment relationship
- ▶ Agreed mechanism to deal with overpayments
- ▶ If asked to work on a day off and cancelled, min 12 hours' notice or be paid at least 4hrs
- ▶ Saturday work after 8 hours to be paid at double time
- ▶ RDO one per month for local drivers
- ▶ Forklift claims
- ▶ Extra grade for towing quads
- ▶ Uniform clause – for new employees and Rail specific work
- ▶ Team leader to be classified as Grade 8 + $80 per week allowance
- ▶ Leave claims
- ▶ Public holiday claims
- ▶ Allowances (eg. trainers' allowance, freezer allowance)

PLEDGE YOUR SUPPORT NOW

To achieve the EA that reflects your hard work, it's crucial that workers band together more than ever. Show your support by pledging to back your TWU bargaining committee.

I pledge to support my TWU bargaining committee to pursue our nationally endorsed log of claims.
