

TOLL PAB BALLOT: HOW TO VOTE

As you will all be aware, we've filed a Protected Action Ballot in the Fair Work Commission after recommendation from your member-led negotiating team. That's because Toll is attacking your hard-won conditions in 5 key ways:

5. Threat from outside hire
4. Negligible pay increases, no super increase
3. Attack on full-time jobs
2. Attack on overtime
1. Introduction of "B" rates

The Australian Election Company will be conducting the vote.

Here's what you need to know.

ELECTION NOTICE

On Wed August 4, if you've provided a valid email address or mobile telephone number you'll receive an email or text from the election company notifying you that a ballot is going to take place.

If you did not provide an email address or mobile number you will receive information in the post.

WHAT IF I DON'T RECEIVE MY ELECTION NOTICE?

Contact the Australian Election Company on 1800 224 420 if you don't receive your election notice

RECEIVING BY EMAIL OR TEXT

If you don't receive your election notice by email or text on August 4 and you are a TWU member who is eligible to vote, please contact the Australian Election Company on 1800 224 420 as soon as possible to provide them with your details. You will have only until Fri August 6 to make sure you can participate in the ballot and have your voice heard!

RECEIVING BY POST

If you have not received your election notice by Thursday August 5, we encourage you to contact the Australian Election Company by Friday, 6 August to ensure your name is included on the roll. Even if your post might be delayed – it is better to contact the ballot company to ensure your voice is heard.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

You'll receive more information from the ballot company next week ahead of the vote opening on Monday August 9. This information will include your link to the online ballot and your unique password to conduct your vote. In the meantime, we encourage to make sure you know your TWU Member Number as this will be needed as your user details when you log in.
