

ALLEGRO MEETING UPDATE

With the sale of Global Express to Allegro complete, your TWU member-led negotiating committee met with Allegro boss Christine Holgate on 8 September.

Your committee made it clear that these are our must-haves in any Agreement that might be made:

- Job security
- Limiting the use of outside hire
- Full utilisation

They also advised Ms Holgate directly of the poor management practices that led to Toll recording a damning $200m loss.

Delegates gave multiple real-life examples of the previous management's failure to utilise Toll equipment and workforce, instead using uncommitted and sub-standard outside hire operators, diminishing service levels to customers.

Allegro management made it clear they're looking to form a strong working relationship with the TWU, and have committed to continuing negotiations for a new Agreement.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

Our first negotiation meeting with Allegro will occur shortly, with dates still to be set.

We'll provide updates to all members on the outcomes of the meeting.

TOGETHER, WE ARE STRONGER.
