

FIGHT FOR JOB SECURITY CONTINUES AT TOLL

With the sale of Global Express now complete, your TWU member-led negotiating committee met with a new Toll management team to continue negotiations.

With Global Express and its large losses no longer a burden to Toll, your negotiating committee demanded Toll address the outstanding issues for your new EA.

Despite most of the arguments against our claim no longer in play post-sale, Toll still refuses to:

- Commit to job security provisions
- Commit to full utilisation
- Commit to maximum ratios of outside hire
- End fixed-term contracts
- Offer a percentage increase for 2020
- Guarantee all Sunday work will be paid at double time
- Pay 15% Superannuation

Your committee will not back down. Toll has been put on notice to have a revised position on these and all other outstanding claims at our next meeting scheduled for Tuesday 21 September.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

Delegate and report-back meetings will be held after the next meeting to update on Toll's response and agree on our next action.

We'll provide updates to all members on any developments that occur.

TOGETHER, WE ARE STRONGER.
