

NEWAY CEASES OPERATIONS

WHAT'S HAPPENING NOW

- Neway is no longer in operation. You should have received a separation certificate or a statement of service and a redundancy notification
- Make sure your classification reflects the grade you are being paid at. Contact the administrators if there is a discrepancy
- The second creditors' meeting is in April – that is when it is most likely the company will go into liquidation

YOUR ENTITLEMENTS

- Outstanding payments are likely to be paid through the government's Fair Entitlements Guarantee (FEG) scheme
- FEG applications cannot be made until after liquidation and can take up to 16 weeks to process

FEG IS GENERALLY AVAILABLE WHEN:

- The employer is in liquidation and employment was terminated as a result
- Employees can't access entitlements through other means
- Employees are an Australian citizen or hold a permanent residency or special category visa

REDEPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The TWU is confident redeployment opportunities will be available for everyone who wants it. If you haven't yet, sign up now for updates and opportunities

NEXT STEPS:

Next week, we will share step-by-step information on what you'll need to do next.

- ▶ We urge you to contact your delegates and organisers if you have any concerns or questions.
- ▶ The TWU is going to support independent contractors. Please get in contact with your organiser if you have any background to provide or questions to raise.
