

TRANSPORT REFORM WINS

In August, transport reform will become active. From then on, the Fair Work Commission (FWC) will be able to set minimum standards for all of transport. While it will take a while for standards to be set into law, we are well on our way to a safer, fairer industry.

This is a huge win for workers after decades of campaigning. Here's what it means...

✓ 1 A POWERFUL VOICE FOR TRANSPORT

The TWU will sit on a Road Transport Advisory Group to give workers a powerful voice and lead industry consultation to recommend safe, fair, sustainable standards to the FWC.

✓ 2 ADDRESSING DEADLY PRESSURE

Standards will apply throughout supply chains, stopping the squeeze from wealthy clients that puts deadly pressure on operators and drivers.

✓ 3 JOB SECURITY FOR ALL

Standards to end exploitation in the gig economy and protections against unfair contract terminations will mean all transport jobs and the standards protecting them will be more secure.

✓ 4 ALL TRANSPORT WORKERS WILL BE COVERED

The FWC can set standards for any section of the transport industry.

This is a system for all TWU members.
