

YOUR CLAIMS ON MENZIES

Your member-led team met again with Menzies recently to present your log of claims to the company. You've made it clear your priorities in bargaining are:

YOUR CLAIMS

- ▶ One national agreement, with the Sydney/ Melbourne agreement to for the starting point for these national negotiations
- ▶ Agreement expiry – 30 June 2026 to align with other companies and give us more power to fight as an industry
- ▶ Superannuation improvements – pathway to 15% super and to be paid on all hours worked
- ▶ Casual Conversion and Higher Duties reclassification after 3 months
- ▶ Roster protections including:
 - Rosters to be published 4 weeks in advance
 - Any roster changes within 48 hours to attract overtime
 - Maintain prohibition on split shifts
- ▶ Increases to minimum shift length for part-time and casuals
- ▶ Increase to part-time engagement hours
- ▶ All overtime to paid at rate of 200%
- ▶ Annual leave and personal leave to accrue on all hours worked
- ▶ Menzies to commit to maximum labour hire ratios

We'll also be working towards closing the pay gap between Menzies employees, while still lifting those at the top. Multi-employer bargaining meetings will continue to take play.

NEXT STEPS

Multi-employer bargaining discussions continue: Mid-May

Menzies next meeting: end of May
