

DNATA OFFER IS NOT GOOD ENOUGH

Your member-led bargaining team met with dnata on Wednesday for the 5th bargaining meeting.

We presented a classification structure that appropriately recognises the skills that workers use at different levels. But dnata still refuses to come to the table on many of your key claims.

YOUR TEAM HAS PUSHED DNATA TO AGREE TO:

- ✓ Paid 30 minute yard meetings every month
- ✓ Reimbursement of pre-employment medical checks
- ✓ Payments for call-ins

DNATA REFUSES TO COMMIT TO:

- ✗ Increase in part time engagement
- ✗ Increase in shift penalties
- ✗ Coverage of Western Sydney Airport in the Agreement and EOI opportunity for existing dnata workers
- ✗ 10 min rest break after 5 hours.
- ✗ Introduction of a disciplinary process in the EA
- ✗ Any leave increases including:
 - delegates leave
 - parental leave
 - long service leave
 - domestic violence leave.
- ✗ Staff travel
- ✗ Stand down procedure for catastrophic events (eg. Natural disaster or pandemic)
- ✗ Provision of income protection
- ✗ Commitment to the Safe and Secure Skies Commission

DNATA WANTS TO ATTACK YOUR HARD-FOUGHT PROTECTIONS

Dnata is still attempting to strip your EA of the hard-fought protections you've built up over multiple bargaining rounds. It wants to put them outside the agreement, where the company can change them at any time.

This is an aggressive attack on workers. Site discussions will begin on how we fight these attacks and lock in the agreement TWU members deserve. We have strength standing together across the country and will use it if needed.

NEXT STEPS

This week the entire union movement backed our campaign to address falling standards in aviation through a Safe and Secure Skies Commission. We know aviation needs big changes.
