

REX ANNOUNCES FURTHER JOB LOSSES

Rex has announced another 73 job losses across several parts of the business, including Airport Support Officers and ASO Team Leaders, catering and B737 Team Leaders and Leading Hands.

Decisions have not yet been made as to which specific workers will be made redundant, but all workers that fall into the affected categories should have received a notification from Rex. If you're unsure whether this applies to you, contact your delegate or organiser.

We know how devastating this will be to those workers affected, and we're working to minimise the impact on hardworking families.

TWU is continuing discussions with EY and the Federal Government about how entitlements and redundancy monies can be accessed as soon as possible.

We're pressing the government to take an equity stake in REX to ensure stability into the future, as well as working to speed processes up now and pushing to protect entitlements.

CONSULTATION MEETINGS

EY will hold consultation meetings regarding the additional redundancies over the next 2 weeks. We'll be stressing the importance of:

- Considering voluntary redundancy requests in the first instance
- Workers being able to access entitlements as soon as possible
- Ensuring safe team numbers to carry out operations

RE-DEPLOYMENTS

We are working with other companies like Virgin and dnata on re-deployments and are in discussions about a process to fast track applications. Some ports have already seen Rex workers re-deployed to other companies with the assistance of the TWU. Contact your delegate or organiser for more info on re-deployment opportunities.

NOMINATE THE TWU AS YOUR PROXY

Rex's administrators EY will hold a further creditors' meeting in September.

▶ WHAT IS A CREDITOR?

As employees or former employees, you are creditors and are able to vote on certain matters throughout the administration process. It's important that your voice is heard to ensure workers' best interests are prioritised throughout this process.

▶ WHAT IS A PROXY?

Nominating someone as your proxy means they can vote on your behalf.

We strongly encourage everyone to nominate the TWU as proxy, so that we can vote and advocate on your behalf.

The next creditors' meeting will determine:

- A possible sale or liquidation
- How worker entitlements will be paid.

BENEFITS OF NOMINATING THE TWU AS YOUR PROXY

- EXPERIENCE: The TWU understands and has experience with administration processes, including Virgin Australia where we fought for workers' entitlements and commitments around minimising job losses
- ONE VOICE: TWU members vote with one strong collective voice
- WORKERS' BEST INTERESTS: The TWU's only motivation is workers' best interests, whereas other creditors will vote based on their own commercial interests
- CONSULTATION WITH WORKERS: The TWU will consult with delegates and workers on all key issues

HOW TO NOMINATE THE TWU AS YOUR PROXY

You need to fill out a form to nominate the TWU as proxy to vote on your behalf. We are currently working through other options for those who don't have access to a printer.
