

ENFORCING YOUR ACFS AGREEMENT

Your member-led TWU National Consultative Committee and Officials recently met with ACFS management to address outstanding issues being raised by members across the country.

A large number of issues raised included superannuation payments, safety concerns, in-cab technology, back-pay on allowances, job security and training and licensing.

YOUR MEMBER-LED COMMITTEE SECURED:

Superannuation review

- ✓ A commitment to pay any outstanding superannuation by August 30 2024 at the latest
- ✓ A commitment to review whether superannuation is being correctly paid on leave loading and public holidays

Privacy protections

- ✓ A new in-cab technology policy to be drafted and completed by October 2024 to ensure drivers privacy is being protected and vision is only viewed in limited circumstances

Backpay audit

- ✓ An audit of backpay to ensure that the 6% backpay achieved in the Enterprise Agreement has been applied to all allowances and loadings.

Permanent conversion

- ✓ Clarification that warehouse workers do not have to have a forklift licence to be converted to permanent.

Triples Allowance review

- ✓ A commitment to review the Triples Allowance for the triples now running in Queensland.

Casual conversion

- ✓ A commitment to casual conversion and that site rates are currently being paid on all ACFS sites

Maintenance and Safety

- ✓ A commitment for senior management to personally intervene in maintenance and safety concerns in Victoria and South Australia

NEXT STEPS

- ▶ Your local TWU Organisers and National Committee will continue to work together to ensure that all ACFS commitments and obligations are enacted and followed through.
- ▶ It is up to all of us to hold ACFS to account over the commitments it made at the bargaining table.
- ▶ If you have any questions, please speak to your TWU delegate or official on site.
