

VOTE NO TO DNATA'S AGREEMENT (AGAIN)

dnata has decided to put out a second proposed offer to workers despite a 92% vote against the initial offer just over a week ago, and despite offering no real improvements. By voting no in the first offer, you've already sent dnata a strong message that they must do better. Once again, dnata refuses to listen to workers.

It's now time to send dnata an even stronger message by voting no for a second time to their substandard proposal that fails to address your key claims, including a pay increase that addresses cost of living pressures.

WHAT'S CHANGED IN THIS OFFER?

There are some changes to the offer but no increase to terms and conditions in this agreement which dnata wants workers to vote on again. It has shuffled around the same pay offer and still refuses to come to the table on other key claims around classifications, part-time hours, and secondary carers' leave.

VOTE NO

Voting will only open for 12 hours- from 6am AEDT Fri 26th Nov to 6pm AEDT Fri 26th Nov, so it's crucial dnata workers stand together and vote no for a second time.

YOUR UNMET CLAIMS

HOURS Increase to part-time weekly hours

PAYROLL ERRORS ADDRESSED so you're paid fairly

PAY AND SUPER 6% per year pay increase + backpay, and super 1% above guarantee

CLASSIFICATIONS Improved structure rewarding skills + responsibilities

SECONDARY CARERS' LEAVE Two weeks' leave
