

TEAM JETSTAR AGREEMENT VARIATION - VOTE YES

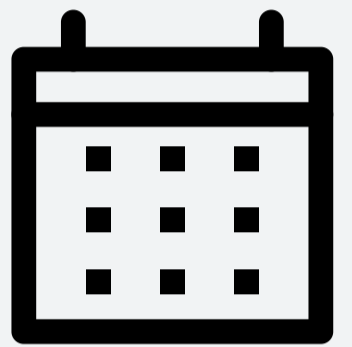

Voting will soon open on your Agreement variation which will deliver pay increases for all that better reflect equitable remuneration between you and JQD.

This proposal was made possible by using Same Job Same Pay laws won by TWU members and put in place by the Albanese government.

The official access period on the variation is open tomorrow, with voting beginning soon. We'll be in touch with info on the voting process.

VOTING OPENS
TUES 25 FEB
10:00 AEDT

VOTING CLOSES
FRI 28 FEB
10:00 AEDT

KEY WINS

- ✓ Missed meal break payment of $21 (increased from $16)
- ✓ BOC payment of $117.43 per BOC duty (to be increased as per JQ rates each year)
(BOC to be defined as an operational flying duty consisting of 2 or more operated sectors, starting and ending at a Jetstar crew base, signing on before midnight local time and signing off after 0300 or later local time.)
- ✓ New unused accommodation payment of $67.53 per day (excluding international)
- ✓ TJ casuals to receive a 1:2 credit payment on unused home standby periods. Current 1:4 credit payment on used standby period as provided in the Jetstar agreement
- ✓ Jetstar to fulfil obligations on part-time conversions by June '25

This is in addition to gains from initial discussions including:

- ✓ Increase of $3 per block hour to each existing TJ flying allowances
- ✓ Increase to TJ cabin crew base salaries
- ✓ Back pay to 1 November 2024

Join to be part of this historic agreement and stand with other cabin crew to keep improving pay and conditions.

If you're not a member, Scan the QR code on the right or click here to join now.

JOIN THE TWU
TODAY

